Missed Classes and Make-ups

Students who miss taking classes for prolonged periods due to injury may re-enter classes by adhering to a modified class schedule determined by the Director. Injured students must be present and observe the classes. It is your responsibility to attend your classes as scheduled. If you miss more than 10% of your classes in a month, you may need to spend a week in a class level down. Students who miss several classes may not be able to participate in the performance or in examinations.

There are no guaranteed make-ups for personal absences, and credit will not be given for classes missed due to conflicts or illness. If there is room in a comparable class, a student may make up one class per trimester at the instructor's discretion. All make-ups must be scheduled in advance through the office. Classes canceled because of inclement weather or teacher illness will be rescheduled.

Appropriate Behavior

Students must never display inappropriate behavior towards teachers, students or volunteers. Inappropriate behavior includes but not limited to:

- Derogatory/inappropriate comments or obscenities
- Improper or indecent attire or behavior
- Negative attitude toward placement
- Consistently being late for class, leaving class early
- Talking during class, poor attitudes or expression during class
- Smoking, using drugs or engaging in under age drinking (This will result in immediate expulsion of the dancer from the school)
- All students are "ambassadors" for PDT Studio and, as representatives of PDT, are expected to follow all PDT standards when attending auditions and summer intensive programs.

If inappropriate behavior is witnessed, it must be reported to the Artistic Director. Gossip and rumors will not be tolerated. Following any reported behavior incident, the Artistic Director will review the alleged infraction to determine if disciplinary notice is warranted. If so, the Artistic Director will submit written notice to the dancer/parent and a conference will be called. Upon the third disciplinary notice, the dancer will be dismissed from the school.

Food and Belongings in the Studio

- A. No food or drink is allowed on the dance floor, pianos or dressing rooms. Water however, is allowed but never place it on the pianos. Gum is never allowed in the studio.
- B. Please respect the studio facilities. Food, drinks and containers must be removed by the end of the day. Food is allowed ONLY in the reception area of the studio. That is the designated eating area. Food trash may ONLY be disposed of in the large trash receptacle located outside the studio building.
- C. PDT is not liable for any lost or stolen items and we suggest labeling everything. Belongings left at the studio will be disposed of during the next holiday break.

Siblings must stay with parents; children should be quiet and may not be left in the lobby unattended. Please be prompt for pick up of your dancer after class. If a PDT staff member must stay late to attend to your child, you will be charged $1/minute after a 5-minute grace period.
